Headteacher: Mrs H McGrath

Dear Parents and Guardians,

We are delighted to announce the appointment of Rachael Adams as the new headteacher of St William of York Catholic Primary School, effective from September 2024.

You will all recognise Miss Adam's as she is our current Deputy Headteacher and she brings a wealth of experience and a proven track record in education leadership, having served her previous role with distinction. She impressed us with her vision for the future of our school and her commitment to nurturing each student's potential.

We believe that she shares our values and ethos, and she will lead our school community with passion, integrity, and dedication.

We are confident that under her leadership, St William's will continue to thrive and provide an exceptional learning environment for all our pupils. We look forward to our continued partnership, working closely with her to achieve our shared goals and aspirations.

Please join us in congratulating Miss Adams in her successful application to become our new Head Teacher from September; Mrs McGrath will remain with us until then.

Thank you for your continued support.

Yours sincerely,

Gareth Smyth
