Weekly Newsletter

Welcome back! I hope you all had a lovely, restful break with your family.

Book Fayre

The Book Fayre arrives on Monday. It will be open and accessible in the school hall every morning 8.20-8.40am and every afternoon 3.15-3.30pm. It will also be open at Parents' Consultation, however just a reminder that children cannot attend the appointment. Thank you!

Parent Link Group

If anyone is interested in joining the Parent Link Group, please contact the office. The aim of the group is to further enhance our working relationship between parents and school. It's your chance to have a say in how to make our lovely school even better!

Odd Socks Day

Next Tuesday, we are celebrating Odd Socks Day in school. The children can come wearing any socks they choose. It marks the start of Anti Bullying Week and focuses on the important principle of respect. We love the fact we are all different and diverse at St William's and everyone is respected, included and valued!

Operation Christmas Child

Operation Christmas Child is a charitable project that aims to bless children in need across the world by filling shoeboxes with toys, personal care items, school supplies and fun gifts. We are running this in school this year and our Caritas Ambassadors are putting together shoe boxes to send to vulnerable children overseas. Any donations of small gifts are greatly appreciated! We will be delivering the shoe boxes on Monday 18th November.

Any donations of shoe boxes would also be very welcome! Thank you!

RAAC Update

We are hopeful that all the building work will be completed next week and we will have our entire school back! Y1 and 2 are moving back into their classrooms today, and the builders are due to finish at St William's next week. It has been a long time coming- and sometimes felt like a distant dream!- but it will be wonderful to have our school back and our children together in one building! Thank you from our entire staff team for your continued support, understanding and empathy through what has been a very turbulent time!
