

Shining as we learn in Faith, Family and Friendship!

Weekly Newsletter

Together, as God's family we are learning through love, forgiveness, respect and compassion to use our unique gifts, challenging and transforming our world.

Y6 at Crucial Crew

This week, Year 6 attended Crucial Crew, at the Bolton Artillery Barracks. The children enjoyed learning about keeping themselves and others safe. They had great fun and learnt some valuable life skills.

GOODNESS

Dear God,
Thank You for loving every-one.
Help us be kind and do good things,
so others can see Your love through us.
Let our lives be a light that points to You.

Y1 Old Toys Workshop

Y1 have had a great time this week learning all about old toys as part of their history topic. They explored the materials they were made out of, what made them work and how they are different to the toys they play with today. It was such fun!

Wednesday Word

The word is - GOODNESS
